Lonestar Eagle Quilt Pattern

When creating your quilt, adaptability in sizes is feasible, provided that the pieces are precisely cut. The decision to enlarge or reduce will depend on your skill in cutting fabrics. When making the cut, I suggest marking the desired colors with their initial letters. Before you begin, combinations masterfully elaborated quilt. Stay tuned to our website and Facebook groups, as we will be updating this pattern and others alike.

PS: These pre-made patterns (as per the image) were not created by us at quiltinstructions.com. WE ASSEMBLED the PDF to make it easier for you to understand how to create and how the patterns can assist you with your ideas. However, there are explanations of the charts and improvements we made, with more updates coming soon. CLICK HERE TO JOIN THE GROUP, which will only have this update.

MODEL 01

Red Prints, Green Prints, Light Brown Prints, Solid Black, and Pure White..

Just a note, in the Eagle's Beak, another shade of yellow or even a darker brown could have been used to distinguish it from the star's background.

Now, it's your turn to craft this marvelous pattern, combining it with your favorite colors or for that special occasion.

PS: These pre-made patterns (as per the image) were not created by us at quiltinstructions.com. WE ASSEMBLED the PDF to make it easier for you to understand how to create and how the patterns can assist you with your ideas. However, there are explanations of the charts and improvements we made, with more updates coming soon. CLICK HERE TO JOIN THE GROUP, which will only have this update.

MODEL 02

Brown, Red, White, and Yellow.

MODEL 03

Dark Blue (or your chosen shade of blue), Red, Black (for borders),
Light Brown, Yellow, and White.

The letters inside the diamonds (cut fabric pieces) represent the initials of the colors used to create the pattern. It is RECOMMENDED that when creating your pattern, you print this sheet, paint the desired colors, and place the initials of the painted letters you intend to use. This way, when cutting the fabrics, you'll know the exact quantity, the colors in their designated places, and it will help prevent errors.

B = Brown
R = Red
T = Tan
Y = Dark Yellow
W = White
Blank Diamonds = Light Yellow